

Baby Milk Action supports IBFAN's principles

- The right of infants and young children everywhere to the highest standard of health
- The right of families and in particular women and children, to access adequate and nutritious food and sufficient and affordable water
- The right of women to make informed decisions about infant and young child feeding
- The right of women to full support to breastfeed for two years and more and to exclusively breastfeed for the first six months.
- The right of all people to quality health services free from commercial influence.
- The right of all people to advocate for change which protects, promotes and supports basic health, in international solidarity.

IBFAN Funding Policy

In line with IBFAN's principles, and to preserve our ability to speak out, Baby Milk Action and IBFAN do not seek or accept funds, donations, gifts or sponsorship from manufacturers or distributors (or their trusts or foundations) of infant and young child feeding and related products. www.ibfan.org/our-funding-policy

Financial support this year:

During the year Baby Milk Action was funded by membership fees, donations, grants, consultancies and speaker fees from partner health and development organisations. We are very grateful to IBFAN, the 1971 Trust and Jam Today, as well as Ingrid Broad, Andrew Webster and several other individuals who gave substantial donations.
